Why do we collect and use your information?

We collect and use your information for the following reasons:

To support pupil learning

To monitor and report on pupil attainment progress
To provide appropriate pastoral care

To assess the quality of our services

To keep pupil's safe

To meet legal duties placed on us by the government

Under the GDPR, the legal basis/bases we rely on for processing personal information for general purposes are:

For the purpose of supporting pupil learning, in accordance with the legal basis of public task.

How do we collect your information?

We collect your personal information via the following methods:

Registration forms.

Personal detail updates given to the school by the Childs Parents or Guardians.

Common Transfer File (CIT) from your previous school.

Child protection plans.

SEND files.

Whilst the majority of information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is requested on a voluntary basis. We will inform you at the point of collection whether you are required to provide certain information to us or if you have a choice.

Who do we share your information with?

We routinely share your information with:

The LA.

The DfE.

Schools that you go to after leaving us.

SENDco services- e.g. educational psychologists, school nurse etc.

Why do we share your information?

We do not share information about you with anyone without your consent, unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Department for Education (DfE)

The DfE collects personal information from us through various collections the school is required to undertake legally. We are required to share information about pupils with the DfE either directly or via our LA for the purpose of those data collections, under: Section 3 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013

All information we share with the DfE is transferred securely and held by the DfE under a combination of software and hardware controls which meet the current government security policy framework.

The National Pupil Database (NPD)

The NPD is owned and managed by the DfE and contains information about pupils in schools in England – it provides evidence on educational performance to inform independent research as well as studies commissioned by the DfE.

Information on the NPD is held in an electronic format and it is securely collected from a range of sources, including schools, LAs and awarding bodies.

You can find out more about the NPD by following this link: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>.

Sharing by the DfE

The DfE is legally allowed to share pupils' personal information with certain third parties, including the following:

- Schools
- LAs
- Researchers
- Organisations connected with promoting the education or wellbeing of pupils
- Other government departments and agencies
- Organisations fighting or identifying crime

Organisations fighting or identifying crime, such as the Home Office and the police, may use their legal powers to contact the DfE to request access to individual level information relating to detecting a crime. The DfE typically supplies information on around 600 pupils per year to the Home Office and approximately one per year to the police.

For more information about how the DfE collects and shares pupil information, you can look at the information in the following two links:
