

We gathered as a school to listen and learn about Laudato Si'. Children helped during the Gospel assembly to help us to think about our common home.

We thought about how we could put this into action to show greater care for the environment and follow in the words of Pope Francis.

Stewardship of God's creation

